The 5th European Conference on Tax Advisers' Professional Affairs

“Amnesty – Privilege – Disclosure: Managing critical issues in client relations”

Date: Friday, 7 December 2012

Time: 10.00 - 14.30 hrs

Place: Deloitte Auditorium, 2 New Street Square, London EC4A 3BZ

As the umbrella organisation of the Tax Advisers profession in Europe, the Confédération Fiscale Européenne (CFE) would like to invite you to the 5th European Conference on Tax Adviser's Professional Affairs which will take place on Friday 7 December 2012, in London/United Kingdom.

The conference seeks to discuss the phenomenon that amnesty, legal privilege and money laundering no longer are of core relevance solely for tax advisers who represent clients in criminal proceedings. Government, OECD and EU initiatives have been and are extending the fight against tax fraud and evasion with a particular focus on untaxed assets held offshore. Aggressive tax planning is being targeted as if it was illegal with real consequences for tax practitioners, especially those advising clients in cross-border tax planning.

It has been proposed that anti money laundering rules require that tax crime be categorised as a severe “predicate offence”, which will oblige tax advisers to take a closer look at their clients' past tax dealings.

The professional landscape has changed and is changing. Henceforth all tax advisers must examine their modus operandi and ensure that disclosure and amnesty, legal privilege and anti money laundering are core to each and every client assignment. Their very livelihoods are threatened if they don't.

Expert speakers from the UK, Germany, Italy, Switzerland and the European Commission will address the repercussions of recent OECD and EU10.00 initiatives affecting

- the professional activity of advisers in cross-border tax planning,
- offshore tax evasion disclosure facilities,
- bilateral tax agreements between Switzerland and a number of EU countries,
- the protection of communication of tax advisers with their clients and
- the consequences of amendments to the EU Anti Money Laundering Directive for tax advisers.

Details of the booking arrangements will be available soon on our website. For further information, please do not hesitate to contact our CFE Office in Brussels:
